Not very long ago three shepherd children
saw our Blessed Mother too.

Their names were Lucy, Francis and Jacinta.
They lived in a little town called Fatima, in Portugal.

One day they were taking care of their sheep.

Suddenly they saw our Lady!

She was so beautiful!

The Blessed Mother had on a long white dress and held a rosary in her hands.

She Told the children,

"I am the Lady of the Rosary."

The three children saw that the Blessed Mother looked sad.

She told them why.

"Many people do not go to heaven because nobody prays for them."

Then she said, "Continue to pray the rosary, my children.

Say it every day."

Our Lady asked the children if they would offer Jesus their little sacrifices for sinners.

With their rosaries and sacrifices they could help more people get to heaven.

Right away the little shepherds said "yes!"

Soon a big church was built where our Lady appeared.

Many people go there all the time.

They always pray the rosary.
